Sir

Language used by Gt. J. C. Kelton, Asst. Adj. Gen. in a conversation had with him on the 29th inst., has led me to infer that there may exist accusations or charges (of which you have official knowledge) implicating my honor to the effect that I had taken horses to my own use while acting in the service of the U. S. as Lieut. Colonel of 4th R. Missouri Volunteers during the month of July 1861. Being able to establish the rectitude of my conduct, and to disprove any such charges or accusations, and believing it to be my right and duty, to protect my honor, and that of the Government, in whose employment I was acting, I most respectfully ask to be furnished with a copy of any such charges that may have been officially communicated to you.

Very respectfully Yours obedient Servt.

Statements of information, reported to A. A. C. under his reference of Sept 3^d 1861

The Sord mare, Saddle & Bridle was taken by private Henry Cook across the river from Sherman in Warren Co Mo and was delivered by Cook to Col Smith of the American Square Regiment he (Cook) taking Col Smith's receipt for her. Of the dark horse could not learn any thing Col Hammer took a great many horses as contraband & would give them to his officers without a receipt therefor.

Frank Lak has a horse given him by Col Hammer, Tho Garney has some horses but can't tell whether he got them from Col Hammer or not.

When opposite Sherman there were taken some prisoners seven of whom were mounted. The prisoners were given in charge to Capt Milker to be taken to Sherman and upon his return to the regiment the horses had been distributed among the officers by Col Hammer.

There was a number of horses delivered to Col Smith at Mexico, ^{Col} Smith giving his receipt for them.

The above information was obtained from Capt Milker, who during the conversation made the remark that he had been informed that Col Hammer had sold a number of the horses taken as contraband but did not know as it was so. The other two men could not be found.

To Major General Halleck

General

I have been furnished by Cpts Helton with a copy of charges made against me while Lt. Colonel of 4th Regt. Miss. Vol. It is not stated, who makes the charges! — But I avail myself of the earliest opportunity to state, that said charges are false in every particular, and could only have emanated from malice and illwill. As a man of honor I feel it to be my duty to ask that an enquiry into the charges may be made by a Commission constituted for that purpose.

Very respectfully

Your obedient servant
